InterCloud Systems, Inc. Announces Contact Center Managed Services Agreement

GlobeNewswire InterCloud Systems, Inc. 5 hours ago

RED BANK, N.J., June 16, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- InterCloud Systems, Inc. (ICLD) announced today a contract valued at $400,000 with Harbortouch to provide a total migration from their legacy voice system to next-generation unified communications (UC) and contact center (CC) architectures. InterCloud will provide various value-add elements to Harbortouch, such as presale consulting services and a solution design, including cloud centric geographic redundancy for their corporate offices. In addition, the company will provide a total turnkey implementation with InterCloud professional services, including advanced applications, as they deploy this industry-leading solution.

Shashi Varma, Director of Information Systems for Harbortouch, stated, "We are excited to start this partnership with InterCloud Systems. To that end, our focus at Harbortouch was to replace our outdated technology and core infrastructure with a high quality, integrated solution. Our goal is to provide superior customer service, utilizing advanced technology and applications. This ultimately will provide greater employee efficiency and an overall better service experience to our customers."

Joseph Scotti, Regional Vice President of Sales for InterCloud Systems, stated, "We are pleased to announce this contract with Harbortouch. Our team's focus was based on a complete review of Harbortouch's long-term business needs. We are confident our fully integrated solution provides Harbortouch future scalability, cost containment, advanced features, and our unique ability to support Harbortouch as they grow nationally and globally."
