MOZIDO FEATURED IN THE NILSON REPORT

JULY 25, 2014 BY KIM KELSALL

For every industry, there are a handful of trusted publications that serve as invaluable resources for business executives to stay informed and up-to-date. In the payments industry, The Nilson Report is one of them. As a trusted and authoritative voice, The Nilson Report offers industry insights, trends and news on the latest innovation and the changing payments landscape.

This month's issue just hit the stands, and as a company, we were thrilled that Mozido was included. The July issue features the chart of the month, Latin America's top merchant acquirers, the top manufacturers of payments cards worldwide in 2013 and the latest on the AmEx vs. U.S. Department of Justice case, among other news.

Mozido is highlighted (p. 7) in the issue with the latest on our Sticky Street loyalty platform we acquired at the end of 2013, Dan O'Malley as our new Chief Operating Officer and our global expansion supported by joint ventures and partnerships.
