Supporting Canadian Small Businesses, Chase Paymentech extends CFIB Partnership

Business Wire February 16, 2017

TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Demonstrating continued support of Canadian small businesses, Chase Paymentech announced today it is extending its partnership with the Canadian Federation of Independent Business (CFIB) through April 2022.

“Chase Paymentech has been a terrific partner for Canadian small and medium-sized businesses and the CFIB is happy to renew our partnership with Chase, as they serve our members well and offer the lowest payments processing costs available to smaller firms,” said Dan Kelly, CEO of the 109,000 member organization.

The extension means CFIB members continue to receive preferred pricing for merchant services from Chase Paymentech, part of JPMorgan Chase & Co., named the #1 wholly-owned merchant acquirer in the world by The Nilson Report as of April 2016.

“Helping small businesses around the world is a priority for us, and we look for partners like the CFIB who share that focus,” said Sam Jawad, president of Chase Paymentech Canada. “The scope of the CFIB partnership allows us to deliver safe and secure payment processing with extra value.”
