Synchrony Financial Board of Directors Adds Former Senator Olympia Snowe as a Board Observer

Synchrony Financial January 20, 2015 10:00 AM

STAMFORD, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Synchrony Financial (SYF) today announced that former United States Senator Olympia Snowe will serve as a non-voting observer to its Board of Directors.

Senator Snowe will continue as a Board observer until Synchrony Financial completes its separation from GE, at which time she is expected to join the Synchrony Financial Board of Directors as an independent director.

"As a new public company, we will benefit greatly from Senator Snowe's wealth of leadership and public policy experience and she will serve as a great source of thoughtful guidance and inspiration to our Board, our company, and for me personally as well," said Margaret Keane, President and Chief Executive Officer of Synchrony Financial. "Senator Snowe has earned her reputation as a strong leader who is a renowned expert in many issues that are relevant to our business, including: finance, budget and fiscal responsibility; business and commerce; health care; foreign affairs; and women and diversity. We are honored that Senator Snowe will be an observer to our Board."

Senator Snowe served in the U.S. Senate from 1995-2013, and as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1979-1995. She is currently chairman and CEO of Olympia Snowe, LLC, a policy and communications consulting firm, a senior fellow at the Bipartisan Policy Center, where she is a member of
